

Spelling Activities – Homophones

A Homophone is a word that sounds the same but has multiple spellings and different meaning. This week you need to learn the spelling and meaning of the homophones in these activities. You may need a dictionary so use this online one.

<https://kids.britannica.com/kids/browse/dictionary>

Activity 1:

Use a dictionary to find the meaning of these homophones and then neatly write each of them into a sentence.

steel	steal
alter	altar
led	lead
assent	ascent
bridal	bridle

Activity 2:

Write the missing words; make sure you get the correct spelling, as the missing words are all homophones!

You are not _____ in there!

He walked _____ the window and glanced at his reflection.

The bride walked up the _____ towards the _____.

It was a steep _____, but Tom _____ the way.

He _____ the sound of hooves and saw the metal flash of the _____.

The shoplifter learnt it was wrong to _____ and that it can _____ people's lives.

The _____ of sheep lived on the _____ of Mull.